Dear Mr. Duarte:

We are pleased to enclose the executed consent forms to use the words “Little League” in the corporate title for the California District 35 Little League of Petaluma, California.

Copies of the consent form, approved Constitution and By-Laws, Articles of Incorporation, and other documents needed for presentation to the appropriate authority in the state of California for Little League Incorporation have been reviewed and placed in the league’s files at your Regional Headquarters.

We commend you for your efforts in seeking corporate status for the protection of your organization. If you need anything further, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Becky Bassett
